

On your own

Inaccurate systems like Zillow, Redfin, etc

You chase down seller agents to coordinate showings

You guess what price is the right price to offer

You negotiate against an experienced seller's agent

You manage over 40 dates, deadlines & contractual requirements

You pay the seller's agent to negotiate against you

With a Thrive Buyer's Agent

Real time home search tools to find the best deals fast

Simple showings coordinated right through our website in 1 click

We equip you with market analytics to determine the best offer price

We leverage years of experience to negotiate & advocate for you

We manage the entire process with total transparency

We protect your best interests & exercise our fiduciary responsibility

There is significant risk in buying a home without a Buyer's Agent.

The Seller's Agent (also known as the "Listing Agent") is legally bound to get the highest price and best terms possible for the seller – the buyer gets no representation.

Beware of this situation!
